Terra Associates, Inc. is seeking a skilled, outgoing, self-motivated Senior Geotechnical Engineer with seven plus years of experience. Applicants must be well versed in all aspects of geotechnical engineering, including shallow and deep foundation design, shoring systems, groundwater flow, slope stability, mechanically stabilized earth (MSE) wall design, pavement designs, and seismic evaluations. Experience with developing work scopes for completing geotechnical studies and performing the field work is a must. The successful individual will be a key member of our engineering and constructions services geotechnical team.

Requirements Include
• Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering
• Washington Civil Engineer (P.E.) registration required
• Minimum of 7 years of professional experience
• Experience collaborating with clients and engineering community is a strong plus
• Ability to work with counterparts to share workload when required
• Excellent verbal, written and organizational skills are required
• Strong project management skills are required
• Client management skills are required

Company Description
Terra Associates is a small geotechnical engineering and environmental firm serving clients in the Pacific Northwest. Founded in 1984 we primarily serve the private development sector. Projects include small to large residential subdivisions, commercial and industrial developments, retail and mid to high-rise buildings with multiple levels of below grade parking.

Benefits
Terra Associates offers an excellent compensation and benefits package that includes – competitive salary, generous bonus structure, profit sharing SEP plan, and excellent medical and dental plans.

Please e-mail letter of interest and resume to:

cdecker@terra-associates.com